A GREAT MEETING

As soon as Judge H. Clay McKee returned from the Bi-State meeting of the Midland Trail Association at Ashland, we received word and sent our representative in haste for an interview, which we give just as our distinguished representative spoke it. Of course the Judge was too modest to tell of his own efforts, but we had word from those who are capable judges, and as we predicted, he bore the palm as having delivered the speech of the occasion. The Judge was the happy enthusiast, in love not only with this great commonwealth, but with the entire world. He would stop fighting and enter into peace negotiations at this very moment. He held the immense audience spell-bound as he told of older Kentucky and caught new visions of Kentucky's future, so vividly presented that this intelligent audience gave approval by an almost continuous encore. Of our products, mineral and agricultural, he was minute and of citizenship he was real.

It is now up to our people to cultivate and gather the harvest. Will we ply the motor power or will we permit the opportunity within our grasp to pass, the future none will disclose.

Judge McKee sounds the alarm and if we would reap we must sow. Arouse, ye sleeping citizens, to work to work be our slogan.

Following is our interview with Judge McKee.

Meeting of Midland Trail Boosters.

The enthusiasm of the five hundred men and "three women" at Ashland last Thursday was such as to shake with alarm the most beautiful and artistic building of the Elks—the Elks' Home in that city.

By the way, why can't Mt. Sterling Elks do something for their city and build a home in it? Mt. Sterling must wake and start something, and we know no better leaders to take the reins than the B. O. P. E.'s, or let's have a Rotary Club.

Judge J. S. Wade, County Judge of Boyd county, gave the welcome address in his own inimitable style, and the great success of the meeting must be attributable in a large manner to his untiring efforts, ably supported by that host of royal, princely crowd of Rotarians.

Mr. J. S. Ogden introduced Dr. R. R. Ellmore, of Louisville, who "shot from the shoulder" outlining in well chosen words, the incalculable benefits to follow the building of the Midland Trail through Kentucky or from Ashland, via Grayson, Morehead, Farmers,

MARRIED AT WINCHESTER

Miss Kate Hunt and Mr. Jilson Whitsitt were married in the study of the First Baptist Church at Lexington, Ky., Wednesday afternoon by Rev. W. S. Tynlor. The young people were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harvey H. Franklin, of Clark county. Immediately after the ceremony the young people left for a bridal tour in the Sunny Southland. Upon their return they will reside upon a farm on the Iron Works pike recently purchased by Mr. Whitsitt.

Miss Hunt is a daughter of Mr. George R. Hunt, one of Clark county's most influential citizens, and is a young woman of charming manner and winning personality. She is a niece of Mr. S. P. Hunt, of this county. The groom is a son of Mr. R. R. Whitsitt, of this county. A school-mate and boyhood friend of the writer, we know of no better young man anywhere than Jilson Whitsitt—bright, honest and industrious, he is sure to succeed in the battle of life, and it is with sincere pleasure the Advocate joins friends in wishing the young people every blessing they so richly deserve.

FARMER FITZPATRICK DEAD

Mr. Farmer Fitzpatrick, aged 29 years, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Charles Humphries, on Harrison avenue in this city Friday after a lingering illness of tuberculosis. Mr. Fitzpatrick had been in poor health for a number of years and while everything that medical science could suggest was done for him the dreaded white plague claimed its victim. Mr. Fitzpatrick was connected with the S. P. Greenwade store for a number of years and by his genial disposition and polite manner made himself very popular with a large number of friends. He was a son of the late John Fitzpatrick who died many years ago, and is survived by his sister, Mrs. Chas. Humphries, two brothers, Mr. Artie Fitzpatrick, of Dayton, O., and Mr. Taylor Fitzpatrick, of this city. Funeral services were conducted at the residence Sunday afternoon with burial in Macphelah cemetery.

BUYS MORE LAND

Mr. J. T. Highland purchased the 66 acre tract of land owned by Mrs. Pattie Johnson Riley, Saturday, paying $200.00 per acre for this valuable property. This land adjoins the A. S. SITUATION IS VERY SERIOUS

United States May Be Plunged Into World's War Now At Most Any Time.

Germany seems determined to draw the United States into the war and since declaring the blockade of the seas has by every act and deed invited this country into the conflict. Our great President has done everything in his power to keep us out of war but has taken a firm stand in the present situation and when it was reported Monday that the Cunarder Laconia had been sunk by a submarine, without warning, he immediately appeared before Congress and asked authority to use the forces of the United States to protect American lives and ships against the German submarine menace and to put this country in a state of armed neutrality.

The immediate response was the introduction in the House of a bill, approved in advance by the President, empowering them to furnish guns and gunners to American merchantmen and to "employ such other instrumentalities and methods," as become necessary; and providing for a $100,000,000 bond issue to be used in his discretion for war insurance to encourage American commerce to brave the submarine peril.

The President made it clear that America was asking to exercise none but the rights of peace. He was thinking, he said of the rights of life itself, the rights of humanity, "without which there is no civilization"—rights deeper and more fundamental than merely the rights of Americans.

"No course of my choosing nor of theirs," said the President, "will lead to war. War can come only by the wilful acts and aggressions of others."

Standing at the clerk's desk in the hall of the House, calm, grave, speaking earnestly in the attitude now become familiar, the President delivered his address with the soberness of the occasion. No cheers and applause such as have burst out before punctuated his sentences. By common consent the members refrained from demonstrations as if in respect to the dignity and tenseness of the moment.

But at the conclusion of the address when the President spoke of the fundamental rights on which are based the structure of family, state and liberty, and said:

"I can not imagine any man with American principles at his heart, hesitating to defend these things," cheers broke forth and resounded through the chamber.

FLAG PRESENTATION

A very handsome flag was presented by the School Board to the High School Cadets Friday morning. Mr. L. T. Chiles made the presentation speech—alluding to a similar occasion about 57 years ago when the young ladies of the city presented a flag to the "Hinkston Tigers," an organization of boys from 15 years old and up, J. M. Crawford being Captain, L. T. Chiles First Lieutenant and Clarence Barnes Second Lieutenant. Mr. Chiles also called attention to the similarity of the situation then and now—the indecision and uncertainty of those in authority and the general unpreparedness of the North. The South then believing the North would not resort to arms just as the Germans seem to think about our country today.

The Chamberlain bill was heartily approved and the necessity of teaching obedience to authority and instilling a love of flag and country was set forth. Mr. Carroll Chenault made a neat speech in accepting the flag. The school in conclusion sang the "Star Spangled Banner" with enthusiasm.

HOUSE BURNED MONDAY

Fire destroyed the two-story frame residence on the farm of Mrs. Lizzie Wilson on the Camargo pike near this city. Monday morning about eleven o'clock. The origin of the fire is unknown but it is thought to have caught from the flue. The house was occupied by Mr. Bruce Willoughby and at the time of the fire except Mrs. Willoughby was at home. Practically all the household goods were destroyed.

SCARLET FEVER BREAKS OUT

City and County Authorities Should Assist Board of Health to Confine Disease.

There are several cases of scarlet fever in this city and it is feared by the Board of Health that an epidemic of this dreaded disease will be had here unless steps are taken immediately to suppress same. Under the law the houses where the disease is located should have a placard warning people of same and those who are in attendance on the sick should not be permitted to mingle with other people. The Board of Health has no funds for carrying out this work but the city and county authorities should at once provide the necessary money for this work and the officers should see that the law is enforced. It is nearly a criminal act to permit innocent people to come in contact with the disease when it could easily be prevented. We publish below a warning issued by the Board of Health and trust that our people will use their good sense in trying to comply strictly to its provisions.

Health Board's Card

In view of a threatened invasion of our city and county by some of the more serious contagious and infectious diseases, it becomes the duty of the Montgomery County, (Ky.) Board of Health, to institute the necessary means to prevent the spread of the diseases and eradicate them from our community.

In this effort the board earnestly solicits the hearty co-operation of every physician and citizen in the city and county.

1. The law provides, that it shall be the duty of any one having the care or control of children, to report within 24 hours, any illness of the slightest suspicious nature, such as sore throat, fever, with headache or chilliness, especially in threatening times like the present, that may occur in such children, either to their physician, the board of health or the health officer, that the necessary precautions may be taken, at the earliest possible moment.

2. In case any of these contagious diseases are found to exist "quarantine must at once be established" and most rigidly enforced. In cases of Scarlet Fever, the patient must be rigidly isolated and quarantined for a term of at least (42 days) six weeks, and none must

FARM BOYS LEAVE HOME WHEN LAND IS POOR

Keep the Boys on the Farm by Up-building Instead of Destroying the Soil.

Notwithstanding the fact that there are already large areas of furrow lands lying idle, and the gullies becoming more numerous and larger in size each year, many farmers continue to look for "new ground." This is due to the unproductiveness of the fields now in cultivation, and to poor methods of farming. The land is cropped without any thought for the future, without any effort to preserve and improve the conditions and productiveness, and without any thought for the son who is later to take his place and make an honest living. Instead, the desire for "new ground" gets a strong hold on the farmer, and away go the trees, and there appears in their place more land to likewise follow the fate of the other. The farmer often has more than he can attend to, and the result is that there are soon more gullies than ever, and instead of bettering himself, he has a poorer farm than before. In a few years this "new ground" is soon in as bad condition as the other. The cause of this waste of land is slipshod methods of farming the fields now in cultivation. By continuous cropping systems, without proper rotations, without effort to keep up the productiveness of the farm, and the carelessness of the farmer who lets his soil get depleted of vegetable matter, and wash away through improper terracing. Is it any wonder that the farmers' sons look to the city for a living, instead of the farm? By letting the farm run down, and making it harder and harder each year to make a profitable crop, it is no wonder that the sons turn their heads towards the city, leaving the old home, of which they should be proud, and willing to remain, instead of seeking some means of making a living which does not appear so hopeless. With the soil getting poorer, the hillsides more ragged, and the buildings themselves more dilapidated, can the son be blamed? We should try to build up our farms, make them more attractive, and the homes more comfortable, give the children something of which they will be proud, and not be willing to sacrifice for a life in the cities. As long as we neglect to so care for our farms as to let them become unprofitable and to make it more burdensome each year, and made more unattractive, we cannot expect the son to stay.

THE ORDINARY WOMAN

The husband of the ordinary woman has not the gift of making money. He works hard, but is a poor manager and the wolf never gets far from his door. The good wife sews, cooks and mends for the man who does not even give her a kind word for pay. One has most truthfully said that for each of her children she trod the Gethsemane of woman, only to go through that slavery of motherhood which the woman endures who is too poor to hire competent nurses. For years and years she never knew what it was to have a single night's unbroken sleep. The small hours of the morning found her walking the floor with a sick babe, or putting water to thirsty little lips. There was no rest for her day and night. There was always a child in her arms or clinging to her skirts. Oftener than not she was sick and nerve worn and weary almost to death but never failed to rally to the call of "mother!"—as a good soldier always rallied to his battle-cry.

Nobody called her brave and yet, when one of the children came down with malignant diphtheria she braved death one hundred times in bending over the little sufferer, without one thought of danger, and when the little one was laid away under the sod, she who had loved most was the first to gather herself together and take up the burden of life for the others.

These ordinary women may not receive a Carnegie badge for bravery, but "He who marks the sparrow's fall" will certainly reserve for them the brightest jeweled crowns in His kingdom.

OMER DEAKINS DIES SUDDENLY

The remains of Omer Deakins, who died in Lexington last Monday very suddenly, were brought to this city last Tuesday and taken to the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Joda Turley, where the funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. West, and the interment took place in Machpelah cemetery. Deceased was a son of the late John C. Deakins, who died a few days ago in Frankfort, and was thirty-two years of age. He formerly resided in this city, where he was employed as a painter and paper hanger by M. R. Hainline, and went to Lexington with Mr. Hainline several months ago. He was to return here with Mr. Hainline after March 1st. Mr. Deakins is survived by his wife and two children, also by his mother and one sister and three brothers, among the latter, Earl Deakins, of this city. Deceased had many friends here who will learn of his death with much sorrow.

OHIO PAPER PAYS

TRIBUTE TO BECKHAM

Senator J. C. W. Beckham, of Kentucky, who was one of the speakers at the meeting held some time ago in Columbus, O., in connection with the opening of a State-wide campaign in Ohio, has received from P. C. Gilbert, assistant superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League, a clipping from a Columbus newspaper denoting with the Senator's visit. The Columbus Evening Dispatch, under the caption, "Times Have Changed," said:

"The reporter felt all about him the influence of the soft, leisurely, delightful South. The gentleman who occupied the suite high up in the big hotel was urbane, pleasing, genial. Beyond that he had the gentle, defeatable drawl which marks the Southerner, and when he spoke the reporter remembered Virginia valleys where he had seen negroes plowing corn, Kentucky valleys where he had seen cabins dating to the post-bellum days, Tennessee forests clothing stately mountains.

"Everything that could be done to help the reporter was done. The gentleman spoke freely of his personal connection with the South, and one of its most thrilling episodes. As his intelligent face lighted, and he dropped a pronunciation or two peculiar to the South, the reporter pictured a broad porch, with magnolia vines dropping sweet scents all about and a negro named Caesar bringing a pair of tall mint juleps.

"Not that he was a mercenary or thirsty reporter, but that he wished the picture to be complete, he wondered if the Southern gentleman was going to buy a drink.

"But he didn't.

"There was a reason.

"He was Senator J. C. W. Beckham, of Kentucky, chief dry leader of the Bourbon State."

As Senator Beckham glanced through the very elaborate write-up of the Columbus newspaper man he remarked smilingly, "He was certainly 'going some' for a person living but a few miles north of the Kentucky line."

In these strenuous times we forgot to mention in our last issue that Old St. Valentine made his periodical visit without creating even a ripple on the bloody waters.

CLIPPINGS FROM THE SNAGTOWN TORCHLIGHT

It would be a God-send to the people of Snagtown and the state of Arkansas if the people of this town would get together and have President Wilson appoint J. F. Cross (editor of the Snagtown Press of Progress) to a foreign mission, and thereby get him out of the country altogether. The people tried J. F. as Town Marshal, but he didn't fit the bill, so they elected him Mayor, and when he failed to give satisfaction in that position they had him appointed to a judgeship. Then, as that didn't suit them, they sent him to the Legislature, where he has cut up so that they ought to get together again and resolve that the only way to get rid of him for good is to have him appointed to a foreign mission job.

The next time Captain Jack Street, the weazen-eyed catwampus who bought the Goat Hill Index, puts his foot in Snagtown, he will be blown out. A brass band of sufficient strength has been engaged to meet him at the station and blow him out of town.

The use of ELECTRIC LIGHT in your home, shop or office, is positively no more expensive than any other form of illumination?

The price of electricity has never increased with the high cost of living, and that a wage earner at $1.50 a day, with a family, can easily afford electric lights?

In the United States the average cost for electric lights in the home is but 4c a day, which means that your bill need not exceed that amount?

WHAT IS LOVE?

A New Orleans paper recently started an argument. This journal puts the question, "What is Love?" Surprising, but 23,761 individuals confessed to the belief that they had experimented enough to give a definition. There were nine prize winners, and six of them were women. Here is what some of them say:

1. Love is a doorway through which the human soul passes from selfishness into service, and from solitude into kinship with all humanity.—Mrs. Anderson Haley, Mobile, Ala.
2. Love is a chisel that carves into soft outlines that granite block of stern reality.—Mrs. W. P. O'Toole, New Orleans, La.
3. Love is what makes red hair golden, white hair silver, and no hair a noble brown.—Mrs. Albert Godchaux, New Orleans, La.
4. Love is the gentle art of being vrey miserable in a perfectly happy fashion.—H. C. Belcourt, Houme, La.
5. Love's like a well, and a deep one;

A fact you have noticed, no doubt. It's easy enough to fall into,

But hard as the denice to get out.—Elln Bentley Arthur, New Orleans.

6. Love—a song; music by father, words by mother.—George Gowan, Arabi, La.

WILL GO TO LEXINGTON

Mr. Russell DeHaven, who has been individual bookkeeper at the Exchange Bank in this city for several months, has resigned his position with that institution, and will go to Lexington after March 1st, where he has accepted a very lucrative position with the Kentucky Actuarial Bureau. Mr. DeHaven is a young man of fine ability and enjoys a large circle of friends who will learn with regret that he and his charming young wife are to leave. His successor at the bank has not yet been announced.

In this old dump of a world a man is never satisfied. Let him get a horse and he will want a saddle; get a saddle and he will want a buggy; get a horse and buggy and he will want an automobile; get an automobile and he will want forever.

PERTINENT TO FARMERS

Every hour seems to draw this country nearer to war. No man can assure us that we will escape, for no man knows.

The year 1917 may see us shut off from all source of supplies from the outer world, and dependent entirely upon local production.

Facing such a possibility, it is incumbent upon every farmer to cultivate to the limit of his acreage and ability, and the town person who has a vacant lot should do the same.

The time to begin is NOW. If we place armies in the field those armies must be fed—and the products come from the farms.

Some sensitive people are beginning to wonder if a man will feel any better in the next world after being blown up by a mine, than he would have felt had he been sunk by a submarine.

Walk straight and keep your head high, young fellow, if you want to reach the goal of your ambition. Whatever you can aspire to and imagine and believe in you can demonstrate in your character and in your life.

TAX ON MAIL ORDER HOUSES

It may not be generally known at least we do not recall having seen it mentioned, that a bill was introduced in Congress several months ago proposing to place a tax on mail order houses. The bill was introduced by Edward C. Browne, of Wisconsin.

The Browne bill provides that the amount of the tax shall be ascertained by the Secretary of the Treasury who shall compel the mail order houses to report the gross amount of goods sold by them in each state. The tax collected by the government in this manner is to be apportioned to the respective states in the ratio of the actual amount of goods sold in each state.

Congressman Browne points out to his colleagues in Congress that a provision in the pending revenue bill taxing such institutions would not only be a just but a popular measure. Almost every business has been taxed heavily to raise funds to meet the tremendous expenditures of the government. Then why exempt the mail order houses, he asks; why not make them stand their share of this tax burden?

In referring to the magnitude of the mail order business, and their activities in his own state, Wisconsin, he says that the large mail order concerns are doing millions of dollars of business a year and a proportionate amount of business is done in all other states of the Union, and yet they contribute nothing toward the support of any state or local government outside of the places where they are located and then they contribute but a trifle compared with the amount of business they do. And he estimates that there are at present over 1,000 mail order houses in the United States doing an estimated annual business of $1,000,000,000.

Bankers don't like the new coins because they say they are hard to stack. But we are not running a bank.

SENATOR BECKHAM'S VOTE

When Senator Beckham votes against an act of Federal legislation making every state that is state-wide "bone dry," he takes a perfectly reasonable position, and one that will do more to advance the cause of temperance than to retard it.

Prohibition legislation must, to a certain degree, be enacted in response to public sentiment, not in defiance of it and when the Federal Congress proposes to attach a "bone dry" clause to every state-wide prohibition amendment it will succeed in keeping the saloon in a number of states that otherwise would abolish the sale and manufacture of whisky.

Whenever legislation is adopted before there is sufficient public sentiment to justify it, an immediate reaction follows, and the benefits of moderate legislation, indorsed by public sentiment are lost.

In 1906 the Kentucky Legislature submitted the first county unit law, which was the first legislation of consequence passed in the State, and which, at that time, was considered drastic. Public favor was behind the county unit law. It enabled more than 100 counties to rid themselves of the saloons, but if instead state-wide prohibition, for which then there was no considerable clamor had been proposed in 1906, no liquor legislation would have been secured and the benefits accruing from the county unit law would have been lost.

Step by step as public sentiment evolved in its favor, the county unit law was strengthened, and became of great value, but only because every piece of additional legislation was in response to a well defined public sentiment.

This is an exact parallel to the case between state-wide and "bone dry." The people of Kentucky are ready for a vote on state-wide, and there are many who believe the amendment will be adopted if submitted. "Bone dry" is a step after state-wide, and when there is sufficient public sentiment to justify it, the Kentucky Legislature, responsive to the public will, can adopt such legislation. Then, and not until then, will it become effective. In the meantime state-wide prohibition is the next step. It does not require any eulogy of Senator Beckham to prove his devotion to the temperance cause of Kentucky, for not an important piece of liquor legislation has been adopted without his active support and leadership. His vote last week was entirely consistent with that devotion. Any other position would have imperiled the adoption of state-wide prohibition.—Elizabethtown News.

Remarkably strange how disappointed folks who are always against temperance measures, and newspapers which always take the whisky end of a proposition in Kentucky, are over the vote that Senator Beckham cast in congress against the "bone dry" bill the other day. And strange again, isn't it, that the real friends of temperance who are familiar with the progress of campaigns against liquor, understand the position that Beckham took and have not the least word of censure for him. Papers like the Louisville Times and Courier-Journal, the Danville Advocate and others which delight to vilify and slander him and have done so upon every opportunity since the fateful day when they delighted in his defeat by Bradley and thereby became parties to the treachery thereof, have reared on their hind legs ranting and raving that Beckham is not a sincere temperance senator and has never been. It is the same old thing, which they drag out whenever they see a chance to vent their dirty spleen, and it hurts Senator Beckham with those who know him and love him for his courage and fidelity to the right principles, not the slightest.—Stanford Interior Journal.

MR. RICHARD P. WINN

Authority has been given us by Mr. Richard P. Winn to apprise the Democratic voters of the county of the fact that he is a candidate for his party's nomination, for the office of Sheriff of Montgomery county, at the primary Saturday, August 4th, next.

Mr. Winn is a son of Hon. and Mrs. John G. Winn and a young man of splendid worth and integrity. That he would make an excellent Sheriff, no one doubts and that he will make a strong race is confidently predicted by his many friends.

If elected, his deputies will be Mr. Jns. T. Barnes, our present Assessor, and Mr. F. M. Fortune, of the Spencer neighborhood, two loyal Democrats and high class gentlemen.

We ask for this excellent ticket the serious consideration of the Democrats of Montgomery county.

MR. J. H. STAMPER

Desiring that the Democrats of Montgomery county shall know of his ambition to serve them as Jailer, Mr. Joseph H. Stamper, of this city, has given us permission to announce him as a Democratic candidate for that office at the primary, August 4th.

Mr. Stamper is well and favorably known here, where he has lived since 1884. He was born and reared in Morgan county, and later moved to Wolfe county, where he served for four years as Deputy Sheriff. With this exception, he has never been a candidate, but has always been a loyal working Democrat.

His experience in the Sheriff's office has acquainted him with the duties of Jailer and he promises if elected, to do his utmost to render satisfactory service in discharging his every duty.

Democrats of Montgomery county, give Mr. Stamper's claims your careful consideration.

It was downright cruel for one speaker before the Legislature to suggest that a Stanley Tax Commission might be used advantageously as a Finance Committee in the next senatorial race. The proposed law says its members must not engage in pernicious political activity and of course they would not do so—that is, unless they had a chance—and the chances are numberless.

Attorney General Logan is reported by the daily press to be very much interested in economy. Evidently he thinks the people have forgotten the Duffy and Rock pensions, created by him, at public expense.

Another useless commission would cost the people directly $32,000.00 annually and the Lord only knows how much indirectly.

Money to Loan

In any amount from $500 to $50,000; three, five or seven years on improved Real Estate upon reasonable terms.

TALK WITH HOFFMAN

CLIPPINGS FROM THE SNAGTOWN TORCHLIGHT

J. F. Cross, our blacksmith, has employed Dr. Mobbs to write him a couple of anonymous letters, which he will send to Tom Eddy and Gar-nett Eisele, who have been sending to Sears & Roebuck for their plow-points.

Dr. Diemer is confined to his home with a bad case of the mumps. If it continues much longer he expects he will have to have all of his photographs enlarged.

Albert Schiek fell out of a tall mulberry tree on Gimlet Creek last Thursday afternoon. He fell slowly and escaped unhurt. Albert says very few people know how to fall out of trees.

Dr. Dick Ellis has written to Beatrice Fairfax to find out what will keep his shaving brush from shedding this spring.

The Wild Cat Hill preacher has come back from Rising Forks, where he has been carrying on a protracted meeting. He had such good success that he has decided not to raise a crop this year.

Little Sammy Wexler got choked on a piece of bacon last night and it was some time before the family recovered from the excitement. Hereafter Little Sammy will be given no more meat that hasn't got a string tied to it.

The doctor was called in to see Mrs. George Pakis last evening. He gave her several doses of medicine and thinks she cannot possibly survive another week.

There is some talk of building a railroad near Snagtown. Daniel Boone had to walk everywhere he went, and got by all right, and we see no reason for railroads at this late date.

Col. Boh McRoberts stood for his photograph the other day. They will be made on post cards, and he had a bunch of one-cent stamps in one hand.

The almanac says we are to have rain on the 13th. Tom Eddy is superstitious and has written to the weather forecaster, asking him to change the date of the downpour.

An oyster supper was given last Wednesday evening at the residence of Leonard Boulton. There were not enough bivalves to go around, and those who were not served with oysters were served with crackers, but none of the guests made a hole till after they got to their homes.

BECKHAM'S VOTE

The stand taken by Senator Beckham, as well as Senator Kenyon and Congressman Webb, on the Reed bone-dry amendment is being criticised, and especially by the liquor organs and Stanley men. They say he is not a true Phobi. Yet we notice that Congressman Cantrill voted for the bone-dry side and he makes no pretensions to being against liquor. What it all means we do not know. Is the legislation so drastic that it will disgust some of the temperance people? We think not. Is it an infringement on State Rights? Probably so, but we have discarded that old Democratic idea long ago. Some say that Beckham did it to fool the liberals into voting for it. Whatever may have been his idea we believe he was sincere, and the efforts of the C.-J. and Times to credit him with wanting a bottle himself will be unavailing. It is amusing to notice the super efforts the opponents of Senator Beckham are making to "get his goat," but will they?—Winchester Courier.

COMMUNITY CLUB MEETING

The Community Club will meet at Consolidated School building at Camargo, Ky., on Friday night, March 2, at 7 o'clock. We will have an address by Mr. T. J. Bigstaff on some seasonable subject connected with farm work or management. We expect also to have an address on Domestic Science if we can procure a lecturer. After that we would like to have a few minutes of questions by any one who has a problem to solve about home or farm business. Everybody welcome. J. T. Ricketts, Pres.

MARKET WILL BE OVER SOON

It is the belief of those in charge of the local loose leaf sales that the market in this city will soon be over as the weed is coming in very slowly now and it is thought that there is little left in this section. Every effort is being made to have those who have tobacco ready to bring same in at once.

Below will be found the amounts sold to date by the three houses in this city with the average prices received for same. This market sold considerably more tobacco than it was at first estimated they would. The market to date has sold 8,420,305 pounds.

The Farmers house leads in the number of pounds sold and also has the highest average price record. This house has sold up until noon today 3,596,910 pounds for an average of $17.31 per hundred. 5. In Whooping Cough. Quarantine should be maintained as long as the "whoop" continues or at least six or eight weeks. Isolation and the usual precautions advised in the other diseases enumerated above, as to fumigation and disinfection should be strictly observed.

PROMINENT AUTOS WEDDED WEDNESDAY

The wedding of Miss Mary Cadillac and Mr. E. M. F. Studebaker was prettily vulgarized at the First Presbyterian garage last Wednesday evening. The ceremony was performed by the chauffeur, who used the Seldom Type ceremony, and bank of palms formed a semicircle before which the touring party stood. The altar was richly upholstered in black morocco, with demountable seat covers. Before the ceremony Prof. Anthony Chalmers played, "I Love You Truly," on the Gabriel Horn, and rendered it exquisitely, assisted by Mr. Rudolph Packard on a Claxon. The ton was led by the ushers, Messrs. William Overland, Thomas Kissell, Charles Franklin and Henry Ford. Miss Katherine Baker, a beautiful six cylinder model was the first pathfinder and motored in alone, followed by the other bridesmaids, Miss Josephine Stutz, Ethel Remault, Hortense Flanders and Madeline Buick. Mrs. Ranch-Long, matron of honor, came in with all lights burning bright, and exquisitely demonstrated the Cherry Shock Absorbing Spring Wheel, and parked close to the altar. Miss Harriett Thomas coasted down the other speedyway, followed by the beautiful roadster, Miss Gladys Humphreys, who was the pillow bearer. Then came the bride on the fender of her father, who gave her in marriage. Mr. Studebaker and his best driver, met them at the gasoline tank. Miss Cadillac's gown was beautiful mo-hair, trimmed with Jiffy curtains. She carried a gorgeous demountable bouquet tied with an exquisite bow of Firestone rubber. Mrs. Ranch-Long's gown was of Red blue with nickel trimmings and hand-forged embroidery. Her bouquet was beautiful and of standard equipment. Miss Thomas' gown was of Mercedes satin, with an overskirt of Pierce-Arrow voile. She carried a bouquet of American underswing roses. Mrs. Studebaker's going away gown was a 1917 model, conservative lines. She wore a top boot to harmonize with it.—Hopkinsville New Era.

Advertising a Sale!

YOU don't leave your rig in the middle of the road and go to a fence-post to read a bill do you? Then don't expect the other fellow to do it.

Put an ad in this paper, then, regardless of the weather, the fellow you want to reach reads your announcements while seated at his fireside.

If he is a prospective buyer you'll have him at your sale. One extra buyer often pays the entire expense of the ad, and it's a poor ad that won't pull that buyer.

AN AGED WOMAN

Tells How Vinol Made Her Strong

In her eighty-second year Mrs. John Wickersham, of Russellville, Pa., says: "I was in a run-down, feeble condition and had lost flesh. A neighbor asked me to try Vinol, and after taking two bottles my strength returned; I am gaining in flesh, it has built up my health and I am feeling fine for a woman of my age, so I get around and do my housework."

The reason Vinol was so successful in Mrs. Wickersham's case was because it contains the very elements needed to build her up.

TOWN IMPROVEMENT SERIES

Encourage Location of Industries:

Do we want more industries, more people, more wealth in this town? If so, here are a few vital points to consider.

The live town is always on the lookout to add another industry to its list.

Industries make work, and work attracts workers, and of workers the town is built.

A manufacturing plant added to your town means a positive addition to the earning capacity of every citizen of the town. So that, in encouraging new industries you are not only patriotically aiding your community, but you are directly promoting your own fortunes.

We have seen a few so-called business men who were satisfied with the population of their community—didn't want any more people, didn't want any more trade, didn't want any more money.

Those men were dead and didn't know it—but the community DID know it.

The town that makes a determined effort to attract men and industries will GET them. Its facilities may be limited; its wealth may not be great; its situation may even not be advantageous. But a LIVE PUBLIC SPIRIT—an appreciation of every added asset—is the feature that most attracts the intelligent business man who is seeking a location.

No manufacturer wants to conduct a business in a dead town. It matters not that the town may not use a dollar's worth of his goods. The very atmosphere of the dead town is like a wet blanket on his business.

The town with pep, with ginger, with hustle, injects the same qualities into every business within its environs. Shrewd business men know this, and hunt for just such towns.

If we would grow as a town we must show that we WANT growth. And we must offer INDUCEMENTS.

For instance—

We want to land a manufacturing plant. We go after it. The managers stipulate for a convenient site donated. We donate it. We secure the plant.

Now, did the donation of the site secure that plant? IT DID NOT. That was the smallest consideration. The SPIRIT that PROMPTED the donation was the magnet that did the pulling. The managers of the enterprise wanted to locate in a community where that spirit ruled. They could afford to pay for a site, but there was no way of determining whether the community really WANTED their enterprise in its midst.

And thus it goes on and on.

It is not the bonus, or the site, or even the exemption from taxes that is the real power in locating new enterprises that are to aid in building up and developing our community.

It is the SPIRIT BEHIND these actions. It is the BROAD and JUST view taken by the CITIZENS of the community—a view that RECOGNIZES the VALUE of the enterprise sought, that CONCEDES its USEFULNESS as a FACTOR in the community.

We are all human. We like to be appreciated at what we feel and know to be our real worth. Even the hardest headed business man among us is susceptible to a just appreciation of his worth to the community.

So when we show to industry that we WANT it; when we say to it, by our words and our actions, that we APPRECIATE it and VALUE it at its TRUE WORTH, then it is that industry conceives a desire to be among us and of us.

Our town will be as big as our genuine ambition. It will be as progressive as we are. And the spirit of the population we attract will be OF THE SAME KIND as our own spirit.

You never find a live person under a slah in a graveyard. And towns are but collections of people and enterprises from which those people live.

WHAT ARE WE?

MAKE YOURSELF VALUABLE

Young men, the first question your employers ask themselves when business becomes slack and it is thought necessary to economize in the matter of salaries is, "who can best be spared?" The barnacles, the shirks, the makeshifts, somebody's proteges, somebody's nephews and especially somebody's good-for-nothing, young men, please remember that these are not the ones who are called for when responsible positions are to be filled. Would you like to gauge your own future for a position of prominence? Would you like to know the probabilities of your getting such a position? Inquire within! What are you doing to make yourself valuable in the position you now occupy? If you are doing with your might what your hands find to do, the chances are two to one that you will soon become so valuable in that position that you cannot be spared from it, and then, singular to relate, will be the very time when you will be sought out for a better place.

MONTGOMERY'S STATISTICS

County Clerk Keller Greene has just completed a recapitulation of the figures of the county assessor and the board of supervisors with respect to Montgomery's taxable property and statistics. There is on the books property assessed at $7,797,673 subject to taxation, divided as follows: Lands, $4,325,945; town lots, $1,490,960; cash, etc., $667,650; personality, $1,084,710; banks, $285,408. In addition there are 3,325 legal voters in the county on whom a poll tax is assessed. The county has 2,311 children of school age. In 1916 there was raised 2,558,200 pounds of tobacco on 2,523 1/2 acres. In that year there was also raised 306,859 bushels of corn on 9,920 1/2 acres; 12,910 bushels of wheat on 1,010 acres; 4,700 pounds of hemp; 5,037 1/2 tons of hay; 4,680 bushels of oats; 720 bushels of barley; 8,741 bushels of grass seed. Only 44 dogs were located in the county which is quite an increase over past assessments.

John Hodge, British Minister of Labor, has made it known that the war is to be terminated by the end of the coming summer. John Hodge may be a War Minister of the British Empire, but this does not make him a true prophet. If Germany is facing starvation—and this is the claim advanced by the British military critics and experts, then the great war should end within the next ninety days. But is Germany facing starvation?

This is a funny world, any way you take it. Preachers keep right on tying matrimonial knots and the judges promptly untie them.

ENCOURAGE HEALTHY AMUSEMENTS

The writer of this article remembers, when a boy, reading a book that produced the most lasting impression was the seemingly utter absence of amusements among the children of that day. And we remember wondering if those, sober little children ever smiled, and if they really enjoyed committing to memory Psalms, by the yard.

We should encourage healthy amusements, in old as well as in the young.

Fun—pure, unadulterated, care-free enjoyment, unhampered by thought of anything serious—is as necessary to the right development of the human animal as is daylight to the plant. We qualify it only by adding "in moderation."

Were you ever on a large stock farm, where numbers of colts were herded in a pasture? If so, you have noticed that very little of their time seemed to be given to the serious problem of cropping grass. When they were not engaged in games of romps, teasing each other, they were prowling over the field, investigating every nook and corner. Their restlessness and curiosity were never satisfied.

Young people—and many older ones, too—are just like those colts. Life is not a serious problem to them. That comes only in late years. They know not, as yet, that life holds for them any serious problems to be solved. In fact, they couldn't understand them if confronted with them.

Since, then, our young people WILL have amusements, what are we of this town doing about it? Are we furnishing it for them, or are we simply permitting them to seek such as they can find?

We should keep in mind the fact that just as they are incapable of grasping the serious side of life, so are they incapable of judging the merits or demerits of their amusements.

It is our duty as guardians of the morals of the community to see that our young people are not only kept free from the WRONG amusements, but are FURNISHED with the RIGHT kind.

An up-to-date opera house or CLEAN moving picture show is a modern necessity in every town. A first-class gymnasium, ball park, etc., are essential to the right development of our young people.

velopment of our young people.

The churches and parents are charged with the moral development of our children. The schools are held accountable for their mentality and educational qualifications.

But amusement alone can develop that physique which will insure success in the commercial pursuits of later life, and which will supply the health that leads to ripeness of age.

Study this subject over carefully, you mothers and fathers. Consider the buoyant spirits and overflowing energies of your boys and girls, and recognize the plain truth that they MUST have an outlet. Then ask yourself the question: "Are we furnishing them SAFE and HARMLESS means of diversion?"

Never fear but they can find amusement in plenty if we turn them loose to hunt for it. They'll find it, and it may suit them, but will the QUALITY suit us?

It would be well for us to pause in the chase of the dollar long enough to make sure that the young people of our community have a sufficiency of SAFE and HEALTHY amusement.

We spend thousands in fitting them to chase the dollar. It were better if we spent a portion of those thousands in tiding them over the period of their lives when they are most liable to contract habits that will UNFIT them for ALL of life.

Our boys and girls will be what we make them—or permit them to make of themselves.

China threatens to break with Germany. China has a population of four hundred millions. If the men of China were trained soldiers it would be a very easy matter for the Mongolian empire to invade Russia and overwhelm Europe. It may come to this some day. Field Marshal Wolseley predicted this in the long ago. Wolseley was a famous fighting man and one of the foremost military authorities of the age in which he lived. Japan is behind China in the attitude the Chinese government has adopted. Japan is a belligerent and is supplying Russia with munitions of war. Is this European conflagration destined to burn its way around the world? Who can tell?

What's the use of slaving as a merchant, or lawyer, or doctor, or even as an editor? A Chicago state's attorney has unearthed automobile thefts amounting to $2,000,000 in four states during the past two months.

Cassity, of Lexington, who for many years was a prominent citizen of this city, died in a Lexington hospital Friday, February 10, after a brief illness. Young Cassity was associated with his father and brother, Tilton J. Cassity, in the coal business in Lexington. He was born in Mt. Sterling and has many relatives and friends here to whom his untimely death is a matter of deep sorrow.

INDIANS WANT PROHIBITION

A petition for the passage of a bone dry law for the protection of Indians in the state of Washington, drawn by Chief Joseph's Nez Perces, was presented to the state senate, says the Spokane (Wash.) Chronicle. It is signed by Chief Yellow Wolf and eight of his tribesmen.

The petition of the Nez Perces for a bone dry law follows:

"Realizing that the present laws intended to regulate the sale of intoxicating drinks within the state of Washington are not strong enough for the protection of our people against the mercenary druggists and murdering bootleggers, we, the undersigned members of Chief Joseph's band of Indians, assembled in council and for our tribes, implore you to enact such legislation and laws as will forever stop the introduction of such liquors among our dependent tribesmen. Medical Association Condemns Alcohol.

The Manatee County (Fla.) Medical Association, at a regular meeting on January 18th, unanimously apoted the following resolution condemning the use of alcohol as a medicine:

"Realizing the death rate caused directly and indirectly by the use of alcohol, it seems a part of the duty of the medical profession, whose work it is to prevent as well as cure disease, to use their efforts to discourage and put a stop to this evil, which is exacting such a heavy toll from mankind.

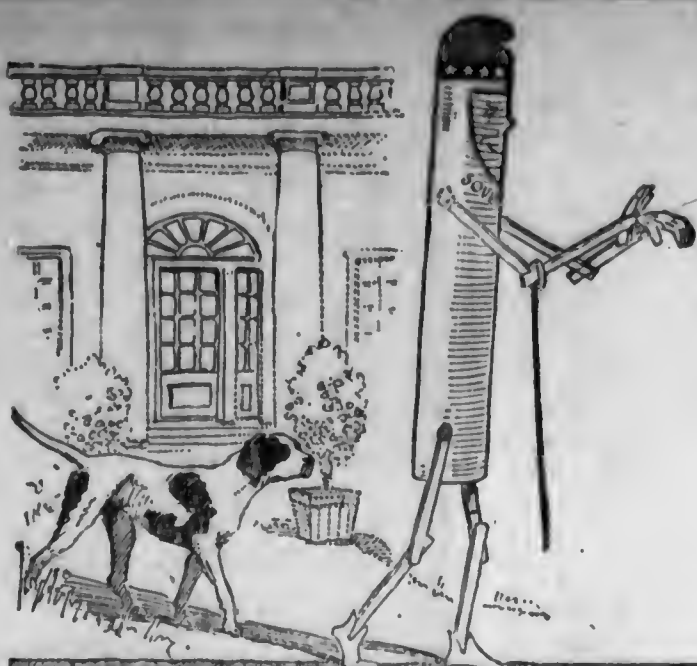

"Therefore, be it resolved, that the Manatee County Medical Association will discourage the writing of prescriptions for its indiscriminate use.

"Resolved, second, That alcohol as a stimulant, can be eliminated from the Pharmacopoeia without in any way crippling the efficiency of the doctors' armamentarium."

Prohibition, more than any other agency, is given the credit for a most remarkable decrease in the number of divorce suits in the Denver district and county courts, the tribunals having jurisdiction over divorce matters, says the Deaver Post. This decrease, according to the court officials, amounts to nearly 40 per cent. for 1916 over the preceding year.

STAND BY THE FLAG

This is not a time for excitement or hysteria. It is not a time for regrets or lamentations. It is not a time for evasion or hesitation. The time for all of these has passed, AND THE HOUR FOR ACTION HAS ARRIVED. The President of the United States, long suffering and patient, and in full possession of facts not accessible to us, has deemed it necessary to break diplomatic relations with a great and powerful foreign country—Germany, to be explicit. The Congress has approved his action irrespective of party affiliations, and it is incumbent upon us, the American people, to unflinchingly support both the President and the Congress.

The startling effects of prohibition in Moorhead, Minn., were recently felt on a recent occasion, when for the first time in twenty-one years there was not a prisoner in the county jail, and therefore no one to milk the county's cow. It was necessary for the sheriff to secure a deputy to perform this task.

WILL MOVE TO COUNTRY

Mr. G. Y. Triplett has purchased from the Mt. Sterling Garage a new five passenger Buick car, and will move April 1st to the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. S. K. Baird, where he and his family will spend the summer.

An exchange solemnly informs us that the winter of the Antarctic ocean is colder than that of the Arctic. All right, brother, buy yourself a smoke.

Party lines have been swept away, and in the hour of danger we are one people united in the defense of our country and its rights and its citizenship.

Nationality has been forgotten. We are not Germans, or Britons, or Frenchmen, or Austrians, or Italians, or peoples of any other land but this.

WE ARE AMERICANS—of one heart, one soul, and one purpose.

We seek no conquest, no illicit gains at the expense of another nation. We seek only that degree of right and justice that is due us as a people and as intelligent human beings.

But if in the pursuit of these rights it becomes necessary for the President to resort to stern measures, then let us rally to him and to the flag in such numbers and in such strength that our future peace and security will be assured for all time to come.

We have no ill will toward the German nation, but our country comes first in all things, and must be defended at all hazards and at whatever sacrifice may be required.

The sale of Clifton Pace was well attended. Everything sold well.
Candidates were plentiful and bidding was high.

Millard Conlee, of Rosslyn, spent

one day last week with his father,
J. W. Conlee, of this place.

Thayborne Pace has moved to the farm formerly occupied by Clifton Pace.

Misses Bernice Conlee and Mildred Epperson, Rev. E. W. Foster and Vernon Conlee spent a delightful day with Mrs. L. M. Hardy Sunday, Feb. 25th.

The school here is progressing nicely with Miss Mildred Epperson as teacher. It will be remembered that Miss Epperson is filling the place formerly occupied by Karl Day.

HIGH PRICED YEARLING

Bean Bros. sold a yearling filly
by Peter Montgomery at the Lexington sales last week for $1,000.
This is considered an excellent price for an untried colt, and the many friends of these splendid gentlemen will be pleased to learn of their good fortune. These gentlemen have sold several colts by their stallion at fancy prices.

CHURCH SECURES MONEY

Regarding the $750 for damages done to the Episcopal church during the Civil War to be received from the government, Mrs. R. G. Stoner tells us it is the result of the testimony of her mother, Mrs. Gen. John S. Williams, as she was the only person living at the time the application was made (over ten years ago)
who knew all of the circumstances.

DIES IN BOSTON

Andy Welch, possibly the best-known bookmakers on the race tracks, died at his home in Boston

this county but who has been a resident of Bourbon county for several years, is on the ticket with Mr.
Geo. D. Speaks who is seeking the Democratic nomination for Assessor

has many friends in this county who wish him success.

INSTALLING NEW LIGHTS

The Kentucky Utilities Company has installed a number of the new lights of the tungsten burner variety to take the place of the old arc lights. By agreement with the City Council quite a saving was made to the city by exchanging the lights.

IN CONSTANT FEAR OF SPIES

Inhabitants on Both Sides of Austro-Russian Frontier See Enemy in the Aeroplane.

Spy fever is once more epidemic on both sides of the Austro-Russian frontier. The mayor of a small town near Plock, in Russian Poland, declares that he was kidnaped by an Austrian air scout several days ago.

According to his story, he heard the sound of an aeroplane late at night, and when it descended in a field near the town, he went to capture the occupants armed only with the insignia of his office.

He alleges that the two airmen turned the tables by binding him hand and foot and lashing him to the body of the aeroplane. They entered their seats, warned their prisoner not to struggle, and resumed their flight.

The terrified mayor was finally brought to earth near the town of Bar, sixty miles away, and before he could give the alarm his aerial kidnapers vanished.

Frontier guards continually report
the passage of Russian aeroplanes at night. An Austrian aeroplane which had to descend in Russia two days ago was confiscated and the airmen arrested.

At Lemberg forty-two Russians, including a number of women, are awaiting trial for espionage.

PLENTY OF ROOM ON EARTH

Little Danger That in the Near Future
Inhabitants Will Be Fighting
for a Foothold.

According to the censuses and estimates made in 1910 the globe contains nearly 2,000,000,000 inhabitants, an average of forty to the square mile. Leaving out of account the mountains, the desert and the ice-covered land about the poles, there must be at least 30,000,000 square miles capable of supporting a dense population, especially with the aid of modern scientific methods and modern machinery for the cultivation of the soil. If the whole 30-000,000 square miles could be made to sustain a population as dense as that of Belgium the earth would have about 20,000,000,000 inhabitants.
There cannot be the slightest doubt that the population of the United States could be increased to an average of 200 to the square mile, making a population for the United States of more than 700,000,000. It is probable that Africa could maintain more than 1,000,000,000 of people, if it were thoroughly civilized. South America covers 7,000,000 square miles, and is rich enough to have at least 500,000,000 inhabitants.

ACCOUNTS FOR IT.

"How are you getting on with Mammie?" asked a girl of her brother, who had been paying attentions to a friend of hers.

"Fine, I think," replied the brother.
"What makes you think so?"
"She calls me Little Boy Blue."
"Ha, ha," laughed the sister, "I'll bet it is because you are always blowing your horn!"

HIS BUSINESS.

"What business are you engaged in?"
"Collecting."
"Collecting what?"
"The living the world owes me."

GREAT MAN.

Gape—Jones has a wonderful constitution, hasn't he?
Steve—Should say so. Why, he can read a whole patent medicine almanac and feel perfectly sound.

SELF-SATISFIED.

He—But you didn't exclaim:
"This is so sudden!"
She—No; your proposal did not surprise me; I knew you had excellent taste.

NATURAL WANT.

"What is that heavy wire for they are putting up in the new lunchroom?"
"I guess that's a feed wire."

NO INDEEDY.

"It will require eighteen months
to get the new one-dollar treasury note into circulation."
"Not after my wife gets it."

ALL HER RELATIVES.

Wife—You got family when you married me.
Husband—Yes, more family than
I can well support.

Salt Lick, Owingsville, Mt. Sterling, Winchester, Lexington, Frankfort, Shelbyville, to Louisville; thence through Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Utah, Nevada,
and on to the Pacific coast, through California. The Eastern extension being from Ashland to Centerville, Huntington, Charleston, Clifton Forge, Staunton, Lexington, Charlottesville, Richmond and Washington, there connecting with the anguifferent system of roads, leading on the Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, and the Boston, extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Mt. Sterling don't often have such an opportunity to get a thing like this, and we fear, like many other opportunities, she has let slip by reason of her great apathy towards them, it is yet possible for her to miss this one, as there is being made a great effort to switch us off
and go directly down the Ohio river, through Greenup and Maysville,
thence to Lexington.

There was not a single person at the meeting from Winchester, but the delegate from Mt. Sterling gave his personal guarantee that Winchester would be ready to do her part when the time came to act.

Now let us get to work and show the promoters of this great road
we are with them and not all times ready to co-operate, not only do our part, but more if required.

The entire Fisenl Courts of Carter and Rowan were there, and red hot for the Trail. While Rowan has been a little bit cold on it, with the aid and enthusiasm of Judge Riley, their County Judge, we feel assured they are not going to let this road go round them.

It was said that the chief products of Rowan county were "Hell and Christmas Trees," but as Hell is raised almost everywhere, it leaves Rowan with the single item of Christmas trees for export, and with this one thing she might make a lot of money, as Christmas Trees are in great demand, and the time will never come, we hope, when the children of the land will be deprived of the joys of Santa Claus and the Christmas tree, but we know enough of Rowan to say she has many other things, if she had the way of introducing them to the outside world. Where are her great freestone quarries, fire clay, timber, and if she has the good roads, can grow crops of a diversified nature, by which she could, of herself take care of many thousand more people and pass out to the outside world tons of crude and manufactured articles, and with the ready access to the world, with the auto-truck and "buzz-wagon," make of herself
one of the best and most prosperous counties in the state. Speeches were made by ex-Gov. W. A. Mc-Corkle of West Virginia, who is an enthusiast on the subject, and made not only a beautiful speech, adding much to its telling effect, by telling of the great roads he had seen and traveled in the countries of Europe, said, "We did not come to resolute and talk blue skies and poetry," but his natural poetic inclinations led him into many flights of poetry and song, all necessary to get up steam, fire the hearts and arouse the good in man to do the right thing at the right time.

Mr. Denney B. Goode, the young Napoleon of the Blue Grass,
the Booster of Good Things for Kentucky, acquitted himself with much credit, his urgent plans that the roads all over the state be lined with trees not only beautiful, but with those which,
a tired or hungry traveler, might at any time appense his appetite and slake his thirst from the many cooling springs which nature has well provided on the way.

He was especially anxious that some fruit and nutbearing trees should line the way that we might not only crack a few jokes as we steamed by, but also crack a few nuts, and any and every one partake

to the full capacity of his stomach, portion found by the roadside in

Gov. Stanley was booked for a speech, but was not present, so his place was ably filled by the Hon. Thomas Theobald, of Grayson, who talked in a way no one else can, of Apian ways, Greece and Rome, but gave timely advice that it would be rather a bad time now to send a committee over the pond for an inspection. Eugene Stuart, B. S. Wilson, Senator S. M.
Bradley, Rodney Wiley, Dr. Howard VanAntwerp and many other speakers made happy and interesting talks.

A luncheon was served in the spacious banquet hall of the Elks' Home. A picture was taken of at least a part of the crowd, and the meeting lasted till late in the evening, with high pressure steam till the adjournment, and was conceded by all to have been the most enthusiastic and best attended meeting of the kind ever held in Kentucky, and you could tell from the looks of those present they meant business, and we feel now the road is a certainty.

At night one of the most unique and magnificent banquets "up-to-the-split-second" was given at Hotel Ventura under the auspices of the Rotary Club, where ornatory and myth flowed with that smoothness and volume of force and magnificence not undone by anything of its kind pulled off in New York or Chicago. The cabaret was truly a "peachurina."

Ashland is a peach of a city and one to be patterned after. Her great iron and steel plants are wonders, to a Kentuckian, and an illustration as to what can be done in Kentucky, her streets a credit to a city five times her size, her buildings in keeping with the type of the Twentieth Century, her people are models of hospitality and sociability, on the move to better their homes, their business and their future. Their slogan is "git-up-and-git." Situate as she is in a corner of the State, cornering with Ohio and West Virginia, she is a beacon
to the whole State of Kentucky, which should take notice of the lustre of her blast furnaces, netting us an enormous searchlight radiating the entire State, reminding us, with others, we should try to emulate her noble example and join in the march of the Twentieth Century.

SUFFERED 30 YEARS--SAYS K. R. R. IS GREATEST RHEUMATISM REMEDY

"Every rheumatic patient in the United States should know about it," says Mr. J. B. Summons, of Warsaw, Ky., in a letter telling how wonderfully
K. R. R. helped him. "I will be 60 years old the 12th of May, and have been bothered with the Rheumatism more or less for 30 years, and have taken 40 different things in that time, and I have never taken anything that is as good as your remedy."

"I work in a furniture factory here, and our foreman came here from Louisville. I went to the factory one morning with one of my hands all swollen up, and he asked me what was the matter with it, and I told him I had Rheumatism in it, and he said to me, why don't you send down to Louisville and get that Rheumatic Remedy and get cured of it. I told him I knew nothing about it. He then told me all about it, so I sent down and got it, and I want to say it was the best day's work I ever did. I can't recommend it too highly to all rheumatic sufferers."—J.
B. Summons, Warsaw, Ky.

Mr. Summons says in another letter:
"I am fastest in believing it the greatest Rheumatic Remedy in the world."
Surely any sufferer who reads such a letter from a venerable man like Mr.
Summons will try K. R. R. for rheumatism, lumbago, gout and kindred uric
